Sherman Goodrich

Case for Equities in the Decade Ahead

Sherman is a vice president and senior advisor consultant representing Franklin Templeton in south central Florida. As a trusted business partner, he brings valuable perspective to financial advisors in the areas of practice management, asset allocation and portfolio construction. Sherman supports financial advisors and their clients in their pursuit to reach their long-term investment goals.

Sherman began his career in the financial services industry when he joined Franklin Templeton Investments in 1991. As an advisor to the advisor, he is a resource for all of Franklin Templeton's investment solutions, including mutual funds, separately managed accounts, 529 plans and insurance products.

Sherman is a FINRA registered representative, general securities principal and holds the Certified Investment Management Analyst® designation. He earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and Finance from Old Dominion University and currently resides in Jupiter, Florida.

The Four Way Test Of the Things We Think, Say, and Do

- First, is it the truth?
- Second, is it fair to all concerned?
- Third, will it build goodwill and better friendships?
- Fourth, will it be beneficial to all concerned?

Of course it will, Now go out and live it!
