Dave Westra - Algae and the Caloosahatchee

Dave's uncle John started Lehr's Economy Tackle in 1957. They started in a building that was built as the 1st gas station on N Tamiami Trail in 1930, just after the original Edison Bridge was built.

In 1973, Dave, his wife Luli, and sons Mark and Mike arrived to help Uncle John with his growing tackle business. In 1980, Uncle John retired and Dave and his family took over...and the business has been a great success serving the fishing population not only in Southwest Florida but they have made custom rods and equipment for people all over the world.

Dave retired in 2005 and was promoted to "Spiritual Advisor" and offers guidance in many areas of fishing and water conservation. If you need something for fishing, Lehr's is the place to go. He has also been very active in the preservation of our water in the Caloosahatchee.

PLEASE WELCOME DAVE WESTRA !!!!

Dave and his staff didn't look convinced when Bill Mathis claimed he had the fight of his life to catch a 12 pound bass !
