This weeks speaker: Introduction by Dwight Sedgwick
Maribeth Lichty & Brent Brown

Running Water 5K Race for Kenya Water Project

Maribeth has been a practicing psychotherapist for the past 31 years with the last 17 years in private practice. She is a graduate of Miami of Ohio University and her graduate degree is from The Ohio State University.

Maribeth is a long-distance runner who participates in races ranging from 5Ks to Marathons. While asking God how she could become involved with clean water missions, she met Lauren Trepanier (tre-pan-eeer), who is working to develop clean water for the Maasai people of Kenya, East Africa. That is where the story of the "Running Water 5K" in Cape Coral begins. As we move forward with the planning and implementation, we have learned, that we can do so much more.

Brent has been involved in banking, business operations and non-profit organizations for the last 36 years. He is a graduate of Purdue University and his graduate degree is from Thunderbird School of Global Management.

Brent has previous experience with the Maasai and Turkana peoples of Kenya, as well as, the organizations involved in this project. It was a "not so random" short conversation about "clean water" and "the Maasai" that brought these partners together.

- Second, is it fair to all concerned?
- Third, will it build goodwill and better friendships?
