Kelsey Cook - Interact Club of North Fort Myers

Interact International Service Project

Kelsey is currently a sophomore at North Ft. Myers High School. She is actively involved in her community: Interact Club, competitive soccer, varsity soccer, tennis, Debate Club, Model UN's secretary, Gardening Club, and Key club. Last year she got over forty-eight hours and is over a quarter way there for this year. She hopes to become an officer for Interact next year. She has maintained straight A's throughout her high school academic career to date; and she enjoys her job at Culver's.

Kelsey lives at home with her parents, grandma, and five pets: two guinea pigs, two dogs, and a mini pig. Her older sisters also attended NFMHS. Kelsey's goal is to double major in International affairs and Communication, and to pursue becoming a journalist focused in Western Africa.

The Interact International Service Project is actually for Kelsey's oldest sister Morgan, who is currently volunteering with the Peace Corps. Morgan graduated from UF with her double major in International Affairs and Economics. Morgan is in Malawi, South Eastern Africa where she is teaching high school. For our Interact International Service Project will are looking to raise money to purchase suitcases for transporting soft covered books, middle to high school level reading, to assist in setting up a school library for them.

- First, is it the truth?
- Second, is it fair to all concerned?
