This weeks speaker: Introduction by Jean Sinko
George & Jean Sinko - Visit to Scotland

With only a backpack each, a small carry-on, and no reservations after the first few nights, George and Jean traveled through Scotland in 20 days. They traveled by train, (Scottish senior rail pass) bus, taxi and ferry! They departed from Ft Myers and arrived in Edinburgh after a 12-hour trip with a 5-hour layover in Boston! The sight-seeing bus trip around Edinburgh was a must. They spent their first three nights in a charming B&B, just a 5 minute walk from the train and another 15 minutes from downtown. This B&B was used as a base of operations.

The first train and bus adventure was to St. Andrews, where the Dunhill Golf Tournament was going on. The walk up the 18th fairway, golf museum, and club house visit was the thrill of a lifetime. Next, they were off to quaint Pitlochry where evidence of Rotary involvement was displayed. They continued on to historic Stirling where they toured the amazing medieval Stirling Castle and manicured grounds. After two more days, they were off to the North Sea city of Aberdeen. The oil rig boats and oil history museum were outstanding. Next came the northern village of Inverness, the home of the Lochness monster. No monster was sighted on their trip down the Loch(lake), but the castle of Urquhart proved to be a worthwhile excursion.

The train trip, taxi ride, and ferry crossing from Skye, to Ft William was a bucket list dream come true. Their circle trip around Scotland ended in the industrial city of Glasgow.

Of course it will, Now go out and live it!
